3. What are the changes in ITR-2 as compared to previous years?

(<https://www.incometax.gov.in/iec/foportal/help/FileITR-2Online-FAQ>)

The Finance Act 2023 has amended the provisions of Section 115BAC to make it the default tax regime for the assessee being an Individual and HUF. If an assessee does not want to pay tax according to the new tax regime, he will have to explicitly opt out of it and choose to be taxed under the old tax regime.

- ☑ For new tax regime, limit of rebate u/s 87A is increased. If your total income is up to Rs.7 Lakhs, rebate u/s 87A is allowed and taxes will be zero. For income above Rs. 7 Lakhs, then tax has to be paid according to the slab rate.
- ☑ Schedule 80DD and Schedule 80U are added to furnish details of disability claimed under respective section along with Form 10-IA details. Please note that, filing of Form 10IA is mandatory to avail deduction under these sections. It is advised to file the form 10IA before filing the ITR.
- ☑ Schedule 80GGC is added to furnish details of contributions made to political party
- ☑ The LEI system has been introduced for all payment transactions of value ₹50 crore and above undertaken by entity using Reserve Bank-run Centralized Payment Systems viz. Real Time Gross Settlement (RTGS) and National Electronic Funds Transfer (NEFT). LEI number has to be furnished for the cases where refund claimed is more than ₹50 crores.

4. What documents do I need to file ITR-2?

1. If you have salary income, you need Form 16 issued by your employer.
2. If you have earned interest on fixed deposits or saving bank account and TDS has been deducted on the same, you need TDS certificates i.e., Form 16A issued by Deductors.
3. You will need Form 26AS to verify TDS on salary as well as TDS other than salary. Form 26AS could be downloaded from the e-Filing (<https://www.incometaxindiaefiling.gov.in/home>) portal.
4. If you are living in rented premises, you need rent paid receipts for calculation of HRA (in case you have not submitted the same to your employer).
5. If you have any capital gains transactions in shares, you will need a summary or profit / loss statement of capital gain transactions of shares or securities during a year, if any, for computation of capital gain.
6. You will need your bank passbook, Fixed Deposit Receipts (FDRs) to calculate amount of interest income.
7. If you have received rent from your rented house property, then you will need your tenant / local tax payment / interest on borrowed capital details (if any) to calculate income from house property.

8. In case you want to claim any loss incurred during the current year, then you will need the relevant documents exhibiting the loss. Register (<https://portal.incometax.gov.in/iec/foservices/#/register-home>)

9. In case you wish to claim previous year's loss, you will need a copy of ITR-V pertaining to the previous year, disclosing the said loss.

(/iec/foportal/)

10. You will also need documents or proofs for claiming tax saving deductions u/s 80C, 80D, 80G, 80GG such as life and health insurance receipts, donation receipts, rent receipts, receipts for tuition fees etc., if the same were not considered in your Form 16.

5. What precautions should I take to avoid issues while filing my ITR?

To avoid issues in filing your return and getting your refund, you must ensure you have done the following:

- Linked Aadhaar and PAN.
- Pre-validated your bank account where you want to receive your refund.
- Choose the correct ITR before filing it; else filed return will be treated as defective and you will need to file a revised ITR using the correct form.
- Filed the return within the specified timelines.
- Verify your return - you can opt for e-Verification (recommended option – e-Verify Now) is the easiest way to verify your ITR.

6. Can an HUF / Firm claim rebate u/s 87A?

No. Rebate under section 87A is available only to an individual, hence, any person other than an individual cannot claim rebate under section 87A.

7. I am a non-resident. Can I claim rebate u/s 87A?

No. Rebate under section 87A is available only to an individual who is resident in India, hence, non-residents cannot claim rebate under section 87A.

8. I own two houses. One is a farmhouse that I visit every week, and the other is my residence. Can both these residences be treated as self-occupied?

Up to AY 2019-20, you can claim only one property as self-occupied property and other property will be deemed to be let-out.

From AY 2020-21 onwards only, both the houses can be treated as self-occupied properties for residential purpose subject to fulfilment of specified conditions.

9. How to compute income from a property that is self-occupied for part of the year and let out for part of the year?

In this case, for the purpose of computation of income chargeable to tax under the head Income from House Property, such a property will be treated as let-out throughout the year and income will be computed accordingly.

However, while computing the taxable income in case of such a property, actual rent will be considered only for the let-out period.
